Let's Wrap It Up!—Exciting Ways to End Speech/Language for the Year

by Thaashida L. Hutton, M.S., CCC-SLP

Fun activities are a great way to end the school year. Students are proud of what they accomplished in speech/language during the year, and by ending on a positive note, students look forward to returning to speech/language next year. Here are some fun ways to wrap up the year.

- Personal Yearbook—Have students create a yearbook of completed activities and/or worksheets that they have accumulated during the year.
- Summer Fun—Create a “Fun Packet” of activities that the students can do over summer to increase generalization and carryover.
- Speech Graduation—Have a graduation for students moving on from speech: students can receive a “Speech Diploma” and/or “Speech Awards.”
- Field Day—Have a field day where students rotate through stations and complete each activity as fast and accurately as they can.
- Speech Certificate—Have students decorate their own “Speech Certificate.”
- Around the World—Have students go around the school and tell teachers and staff three things they worked on in speech this year.

- Show and Tell—Have students pick their favorite speech activity and explain the activity and how to complete it to classmates.
- Handy Speech—Have students trace their hand and write five things inside the fingers that they remembered or liked a lot in speech.
- Free Choice—Let students choose their favorite activity/game.
- Bring a Friend Day—Let students choose a friend and bring him/her to speech.
