No-Prep Therapy Activity: Winter What's Different?

by Mary Lowery, M.S., CCC-SLP

Say goodbye to the winter blues with this fun winter "What's Different" activity. Use the following prompts and questions to target articulation, expressive language, and more!

1. Think of 10 winter words that contain your speech sound.

2. Explain the differences in the two pictures.

3. Describe a snowman.

4. What would you do if you looked outside and it was snowing gumdrops?

6. Name 3 things that are cold. Name 3 winter activities.

7. What would you do if you woke up and there was 5 feet of snow outside?

8. How are a snowman and a snowflake the same? How are they different?

9. How would you feel if the snowman you built started talking? What would you say?

10. Tell a story about a snowman who lost his carrot nose.
